The above costs is an indication only of the likely costs to be incurred. in respect of dealing with your Health & Safety Policies and Procedures and any disbursements.

We can keep you updated in respect of the costs if you require us to do so at any time. Please do not hesitate to ask for an up to date costs position.

If your Policies and Procedures run smoothly and there is no additional or significant further work then it is possible that the above costs indication will remain.

However, if any unforeseen, additional or excessive work is required (or if you require additional time/contact) to be undertaken or complications arise which are not currently in contemplation, this may result in the costs figure being increased. We will contact you to discuss costs and agree a revised figure as soon as we are able.

Kindest Regards
